IQAC meeting:

For the each academic year, an IQAC meeting was held to analyse feedback. Our institute accepts feedback via online platforms such as VmEduLife, Google Forms, or manually. IQAC gathers, examines, and assesses feedback from faculty, students, alumni, and employers during each academic year and confirms the same by holding meetings. The reports are then given to the Principal. In addition, the Principal makes additional corrections, recommendations, and directs faculty members to make necessary corrections. Any new issues that require management action are presented to the Chairman, who makes the appropriate decisions.
